

Stephanos Mangriotis : Photographer

Nationality : Greek

Languages : French, English, Greek

Born : Athens, 1984

BIOGRAPHY

Stephanos is a freelance photographer, living between Athens and Marseille. In his projects, he uses photography but also film and multimedia forms to create stories about immigration, borders and marginality. Besides his personal work, he also coordinates a photography workshop with people that suffer from mental illnesses with the non-profit organisation Dekadrage. In 2011, he published his first book Europa inch'allah about migrants trapped in Patras, that was showcased in the Cosmos books of Les Rencontres in Arles. His work about the second hand clothing industry was exhibited in the National Museum of European and Mediterranean Civilisations (MuCEM) in Marseille. His latest short film Blue Sky from Pain, was selected in numerous festivals including International Film Festival Rotterdam, Journées Cinématographiques de Carthage in Tunisia and Jihlava International Documentary Festival in the Czech Republic.
